Can you show me in the Bible where it says 'once saved always saved'?

There is no passage that actually states that particular phrase. However, that phrase is supported in scripture and only applies those who are indeed 'saved' according to God's seal and His holding & keeping them (John 10:27-29; 2 Timothy 2:19; Jude 24); by their confession (Romans 10:9-10, 13); by their confidence in God's promise from His written Word (I John 5:11-13), by the fact that God cannot lie in regard to salvation (Titus 1:2), by the receiving the righteous of Christ imputed to us from God (Romans 4), and many other references too numerous to list here!
